

THE VESPER WALL LIGHT

The vesper wall light in brass | chocolate

DESCRIPTION

A bold and elegant architectural wall light.

The vesper wall light adds a confident element to both modern and historic interiors, and provides a choice of ambient or accent lighting.

Short, long, straight and angled brackets are options, along with four rich and contrasting finishes. Splash zones and undercover outdoor areas can also be lit by the vesper wall light.

Patinated 5" square brass backplates (to cover all electrical pancake box types) are available for the US.
